

H & V Collision Centers partnered with GEICO and Catholic Charities Wheels and Ways to Work Program to donate a customized van to the Deere family from Clifton Park. James and Heather and Deere's son James J. is currently recovering from a septic infection that caused brain damage and the loss of an arm and a leg.

